You can use all of the normal  $\text{\LaTeX}$  commands, such as  $\text{\chapter{}}$ ,  $\text{\section{}}$ , etc. Please contact the Managing Editor if you have any questions on how to use the template.

CHAPTER 1

Body chapter

1.1 Section one

If citing language data in text, italicize the data and provide a gloss, as for ʔayʔajuθəm mimaw' 'cat'. Use the Expex package for representing linguistic examples set off from the text, as in (1). The leipzig package can be used for interlinear glosses, as in (2).

(1) A linguistic example.

(2) An ʔayʔajuθəm example:

be DET=where be.there-3POSS 1POSS=cat

'Where is my cat?'

(Huijsmans fieldnotes 2018)

1.2 Section two

Subsec one

We also use APA style for figures, as illustrated by Figure 1.1.

Subsec two

We use APA style for tables, as seen in Table 1.1, with vertical rules not generally included. Use the `\cite{}` command for in text citations, as in the following sentence. Table 1.1 is taken from Watanabe (2003, 10).

Table 1.1: ʔayʔajuθəm Consonant Inventory
